"Restriction Period" means the [12 months following either:

- 1. The Introduction of the Contractor; or
- 2. the termination or expiration of this Agreement;

Whichever happens last in time;

"Services" means all or any part of the work or services performed by the Contractor as set out in the Assignment Schedule hereto and performed from time to time pursuant to this Agreement;

“Transfer Fee” means the fee set out in the Assignment Schedule.

1. This Agreement

1.1 This Agreement shall be deemed to be accepted by the Client and to apply by virtue of (a) the passing of information about a Contractor to the Client by the Employment Business or (b) an Introduction to the Client of, or the Engagement by the Client of, a Contractor or (c) the Client’s interview or request to interview a Contractor (including interview by video conferencing or by telephone) or (d) the signature by the Client on a timesheet relating to services provided by the Contractor or (e) the Client’s signature at the end of this Agreement or (f) any other written, acceptance of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement applies whether or not the Contractor is Engaged by the Client for the same type of work as that for which the Introduction was originally effected. The terms of the Assignment are set out in the Assignment Schedule attached hereto.

1.2 The Employment Business shall Introduce Contractors to the Client. The Client shall contract directly with the Contractor for the provision of its services on an Assignment and shall incorporate the Contractor Services Information in the Assignment Schedule attached hereto into such contract.

1.3 The Employment Business’s fee (Employment Business Fee) generated whilst the Contractor is on assignment with shall be specified in the Assignment Schedule and shall be paid by the Client under the terms of this Agreement.

2. Fees and Invoicing

2.1 The Client shall send to the Employment Business on a monthly basis copies of all timesheets, which have been duly signed and authorised by the Client for payment within 14 days of the end of the month covered by the timesheet.

2.2 The Employment Business shall invoice the Client for the Employment Business Fee. Invoices shall be paid within the time specified in the Assignment Schedule.

2.3 The Employment Business reserves the right to charge interest on invoiced amounts overdue at the statutory rate as prescribed pursuant to Section 6 of the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 as amended from time to time (and as may be calculated using the calculator on the website: www.payontime.co.uk).

3. Termination

3.1 Unless otherwise agreed in the Assignment Schedule, this Agreement shall be terminated should the agreement between the Contractor and the Client terminate for any reason.

3.2 Either party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement, thereby triggering termination of any contracts in force between the Client and Contractor(s), should:

3.2.1 either party breach any term of this Agreement, including terms as to payment and fail to remedy such breach within 7 days after notice has been given to the other party requiring remedy; or

3.2.2 any action, application or proceeding be taken in respect of either party for (i) a voluntary arrangement or composition or reconstruction of its debts; (ii) the presentation of an administration petition; (iii) its winding-up or dissolution; (iv) the appointment of a liquidator, receiver or similar officer or (v) any similar action, application or proceeding in any jurisdiction to which it is subject or if it is unable to pay its debts as they fall due

4. Liability

4.1 In so far as the Employment Business is reasonably aware the Contractor has the requisite skill and expertise to perform the Services.

4.2 Both parties undertake to act in good faith in their dealings with the each other and the Contractor and shall refrain from action that may prejudice the other party.

4.3 Save as cannot be excluded by law, the sole aggregate liability of the Employment Business to the Client arising in connection with this Agreement shall be limited to £10,000.

5. Confidentiality

5.1 Neither party shall, either during an Assignment or at any time thereafter, for whatever reason divulge or communicate to any person or persons, except in the proper performance of its responsibilities under this Agreement, or with the other party's consent, any confidential information relating to the businesses of the other party or its subsidiaries or associates or related parties which may have been disclosed to the other or which may otherwise have come to its attention including, without limitation, any confidential information relating to: -

5.1.1 lists and details of customers and potential customers of or suppliers and potential suppliers to any of those businesses;

5.1.2 processes or methods used or to be used in any of those businesses;

5.1.3 goods or services sold or supplied or proposed to be sold or supplied by any of those businesses, pricing policies and terms of business;

5.1.4 any business method or computer software used in any of those businesses;

5.1.5 business development plans and future product ideas of any of those businesses; and management accounts;

5.1.6 fees charged by the parties.

This restriction shall cease to apply to information or knowledge which comes into the public domain otherwise than by reason of the default of the other party.

6. Waiver

6.1 Failure of either party to insist upon the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement to which it is entitled hereunder shall not constitute a waiver thereof and shall not cause a diminution of the responsibilities under this Agreement.

7. Legal and Statutory Requirements

7.1 Both parties shall comply with all applicable laws including Chapter 10 Income Tax (Earnings and Pension) Act 2003.

7.2 if applicable the Employment Business shall fulfil its reporting requirements under The Income Tax (Pay as you Earn) (Amendment No.2) Regulations 2015 ("ITEPA").

8. Relationship

8.1 The relationship between the parties is one of independence. No party is an agent for another and no party has any authority to make any contract whether expressly or by implication in the name of another party without the other party's prior written consent.

9. Ownership

9.1 Should the Client, any subsidiary or associated company of the Client, an end client or any other third party to whom the Client has introduced the Contractor within the Restriction Period, wish to Engage the services of the Contractor other than through the Employment Business then the Client shall;

9.1.1 in the event of no Assignment, pay the Transfer Fee; or

9.1.2 following termination or expiration of the Assignment or any Assignment extension, pay the appropriate Transfer Fee.

9.2 In the case of an Assignment for the supply of a Contractor who has not opted out of the Conduct Regulations, the Restriction Period will be the Relevant Period as defined in Regulation 10, clause 5 of the Conduct Regulations. The Client may elect, by giving 28 written days' notice, to an extended period of hire (Extended Period of Hire) of 52 weeks, rather than payment of an Introduction Fee. Should the Extended Period of Hire terminate prior to its expiry or the Consultant refuse or be unable to continue to perform the Services, the Employment Business reserves the right to charge an appropriate Introduction Fee as an alternative.

9.3 Clause 9 shall survive the termination of this Agreement for the Restriction Period.

10. General

10.1. If any provision, clause or part-clause of this Agreement is held to be invalid, void, illegal or otherwise unenforceable by any judicial body, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect to the extent permitted by law.

10.2. No provision of this Agreement shall be enforceable by any person who is not a party to it pursuant to the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

10.3. If there is a conflict between these terms of business and the Assignment Schedule, the Assignment Schedule shall take precedence.

11. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

11.1. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and all disputes, claims or proceedings between the parties relating to the validity, construction or performance of this Agreement shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
