LSP does not endorse the benefits of operating through an umbrella company or encourage individuals to work via any one particular company on the list above. Individuals can decide whether they wish to be engaged via PAYE with LSP, via one of the umbrella companies listed above or through their own UK registered limited company when working in the UK.

LSP cannot provide advice as to the best operating model so individuals would need to seek independent advice as to the best operating model that matches their situation.

LSP will not be liable for any losses, costs, claims, expenses, penalties or other liabilities incurred as a result of selecting a particular umbrella company to work through.
