

Antal International is one of the world's leading firms in the recruitment of executives and senior managers. We offer fast, innovative and effective solutions, at local, national and international levels.

Our core values:

Founded in the early 1990s to meet the needs of an increasingly globalised market, Antal International has worked with numerous organisations in over 75 countries.

Thanks to its professionalism and global expertise, Antal has, since the early 2000s, been serving SMEs and international groups that rank amongst the world's top 500 companies (Fortune 500).

Antal's scope and scale enable us to support you with both one-off and larger-scale projects and to offer bespoke solutions.

Who are we?

We are experts in global recruitment, creating significant value by delivering practical solutions based on a thorough understanding of your needs. Our approach saves you time, reduces costs and removes the frustration often associated with recruitment.

We give you access to outstanding talent who can make an immediate and lasting contribution to your growth, profitability and long-term success.

Hervé Nabet brings over 25 years of senior management experience with leading international companies in the automotive, luxury goods and yachting sectors.

"I firmly believe that quality of service and a commitment to delivering on promises are the foundations of a lasting relationship built on trust. The future of any successful partnership is shaped by what we achieve together today."

If you are an SME or international group operating in the automotive, luxury goods or yachting sectors, discover how we can help you:

- Identify professionals whose contribution is critical to your business
- Identify talented professionals who are not actively visible on the market but are open to new opportunities
- Avoid wasting time managing multiple recruiters and repeatedly explaining your organisation and recruitment needs, allowing you to focus on your core business and priorities
- Benefit from a partnership based on efficiency, quality, rigour and results
- Avoid spending valuable time interviewing unsuitable candidates, allowing you to remain focused on your business

"I met Hervé during a recruitment process and greatly appreciated his professionalism, kindness and humanity. His experience, open-mindedness and ability to listen are real assets for multicultural organisations."

SM - Managing Director, French Automotive Group
